

Documentary Rubric & Schedule

Documentary Topic:

Group Members:

	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Scores
Interview Questions 5	2 or more sets of unique questions completed in timely manner. Questions demonstrate clear objective of interview. Questions are open-ended and ordered in a way that maximizes quality of answers from subject.	2 sets of unique questions completed. Questions demonstrate clear objective of interview. Questions are open-ended and ordered in a way that maximizes quality of answers from subject.	2 sets of questions completed. Questions demonstrate clear objective of interview. Questions are open-ended.	Requirements not met.
Interviews 10	2 or more interviews completed in a timely manner. Composition, headroom, lead room is correctly used. Sound is clear and background noise is minimized. Answers are sufficiently informative and give insight into topic.	2 interviews completed in a timely manner. Composition, headroom, lead room is correctly used. Sound is clear and background noise is minimized. Most answers are sufficiently informative.	2 interviews completed and included in final cut. Composition, headroom, lead room is used accurately. Sufficient information is gathered through interviews.	Requirements not met.
B-Roll 10	Documentary contains variety of b-roll (footage of subject, photos, detail shots, cutaways) that helps illustrate story presented. B-roll is also used to aid in editing interview down to essential information. B-roll is completed in a timely manner.	Documentary contains variety of b-roll (footage of subject, photos, detail shots, cutaways) that helps illustrate story presented. B-roll is also used to aid in editing interview down to essential information.	Documentary contains variety of b-roll that helps illustrate story presented. Amount of b-roll included is limited and may not illustrate story sufficiently. B-roll is also used to aid in editing interview down to essential information.	Requirements not met.
Story Outline 5	Story outline is completed in a timely manner. Detailed outline demonstrates clear idea of how story will develop. Includes: beginning (introductions), middle (conflicts faced), end (resolution).	Detailed outline shows clear idea of how story will develop. Includes: beginning (introductions), middle (conflicts faced), end (resolution).	Outline shows basic idea of how story will develop. Includes: beginning (introductions), middle (conflicts faced), end (resolution).	Requirements not met.
Rough Cut 5	Rough cut is completed by deadline and includes all major components: interviews, b-roll, and story.	Rough cut is completed by deadline and includes most major components: interviews, b-roll, and story.	Rough cut is turned in late. Includes most major components.	Requirements not met.
Final Cut 10	Final cut is completed by deadline and demonstrates vast improvement on rough cut. Group members worked effectively and efficiently together.	Final cut is completed by deadline and demonstrates sufficient improvement on rough cut. Group members worked effectively together.	Final cut is NOT completed by deadline. Demonstrates minor improvement on rough cut. Some group members did not contribute to project equally.	Requirements not met.
Comments:					/45

Important Dates

Friday, March 22: Outline, Interview Questions due (interview questions required for tutorial release)

April 1 – 5: Spring Break! (Shoot during break!)

Friday, April 12: Progress Check - 2 Interviews due

Tuesday, April 16: Rough Cut due

Thursday, April 18: Final Cut due

missing deadlines and wasted work time will result in point deductions